Thank you for your email. I appreciate you taking the time to contact me.

As I receive many emails each day, I am not able to respond personally to every email I receive.

I give priority to emails from my constituents in the electorate of Cook and seek to respond within a reasonable timeframe.

If you are a constituent with an urgent query, I would ask you to call my Electorate Office on 9523-0339. If the email you have sent me does not make it clear that you are a Cook constituent (living in postcodes 2231, 2230, 2229, 2228, 2227, 2224, 2219, 2217 & 2221), you may wish to resend it with your street address included under your name.

If your enquiry relates to my Ministerial responsibilities please call my Parliament House office on 02-6277-7340 or email me at treasurer@treasury.gov.au

Frequently I receive 'campaign' emails – that is, emails concerning a particular policy issue, containing standard wording, which are sent to me by many people, typically as part of a campaign coordinated by a particular interest group.

This of course is a normal and appropriate part of the democratic process, and is an important means by which community sentiment on a particular issue is communicated to politicians. Generally, I do not respond directly to such emails (although I certainly see them and take note of them.)

Once again, thank you for contacting me, and where appropriate I will be back in touch within a reasonable timeframe with a more detailed response.

With best wishes,

Scott

The Hon. Scott Morrison MP
