Thank you for your email.

I greatly appreciate you taking the time to contact my office. I receive a large amount of emails, making it very difficult to personally respond to each one.

As a Senator for Queensland and a strong advocate for rural and regional Australia, I will prioritise correspondence that raises concerns regarding these issues. However, I assure you that all issues will be recorded by my staff and brought to my attention.

In order to help my staff with timely replies, please ensure that your email has the following included; your full name, postal address and contact number (preferably a mobile number).

Kind Regards,

Senator Fraser Anning

Senator for Queensland
